NEW HAVEN SUIT FOR $1,250,000

in Boston and Maine Shares Dismissed.

Charles S. Mellen and Edward D. Robbins Are Among the Defendants.

NEW YORK, March 1.-The suit brought by the present administration of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad to recover from John L. Billard of Meriden, Conn., profits alleged to have been due the New Haven in the deal in which the New Haven pur chased shares of Boston & Maine stock seven years ago, has been settled, it was announced at the New Haven offices today. Billard has paid the New Haven $1,250,000, it was stated. Among other defendants in the Billare suit were Charles S. Mellen, former president, and Edward D. Robbins, for Billard, a coal dealer, purchased from the New Haven in 1908, in the admin istration of Mellen, 119,000 shares of Bos ton & Maine stock at $125 and sold i back a year later at $150. It was alleged that Billard was acting in the interes of the New Haven, and the deal was a fictitious transaction The New Haven at that time was forbidden by the Massachusetts laws to own the Boston & Maine and it was charged that Billard assumed title to 34,256. the stock to enable the New Haven to inform the Massachusetts authorities of $10 to $100. that they did not own control of the Boston & Maine.

Later the New Haven was authorized by the Massachusetts Legislature to acquire the Boston & Maine and Billard's holdings were sold back to the road. Billard's ostensible profit was about $2,750,000, but this was reduced by other transactions. According to testimon n the recent criminal action brought by the Government under the Sherma anti-trust law against former directors of the New Haven, Billard personally got but $50,000. During the trial it was contended by the defendants that the Billard transaction was bona fide. It was brought by the Government, how-ever, that Billard was financed in the deal by the New Haven and never put up a cent of his own money.

ON LID QUESTION

Governor Told Rev. E. T. Clark He Had Lowered Himself by "Unworthy Statements."

A letter, written by Gov. Major last June in defense of Excise Commissioner Rumsey and in denial that the "lid" was off in St. Louis, was made public today by the Rev. Elmer T. Clark, secretary of the Legislative Committee of the Evangelical Alliance. The Rev. Mr. Clark's action followed the report of clergymen submitted Monday to the Evangelical Alliance, in which it was declared that the lid is off and that once nore vice is general in St. Louis. Gov. Major's letter, which censured the Rev. Dr. Clark, was written in response to a letter from the Rev. Dr. Clark, in which the clegyman assert ed that he could cite numerous instances wherein Rumsey had "flag rantly outraged the spirit of the law as interpreted by presedent, con-strued by the courts, and made plain by the entire history of legislation in relation to the liquor traffic."

Minister Attacked Humsey. lly knew that Rumsey had accepted and acted upon the advice of "brewery rirelings, whose action were even then being investigated by the grand jury." The grand jury investigation referred to was started as a result of the Post-Dispatch's expose of forgery and falsifying of public records in connection with two saloon licenses issued by

Rev. Mr. Clark wrote the Governor," is settled conviction of the moral element of St. Louis that the Rumsey administration is avowedly in favor of he saloons. In view of political history, t is difficult to understand why you, as Governor, should so suddenly change the policy of the excise office.

We hope for no relief as far as the present incumbent of the office (Rumsey) is concerned, so I believe you should know that we are holding the appointing power responsible for the conduct of the office. If the revelations made result in the defeat of the party or any of its representatives, the blame must rest on the shoulders of the only person who has the power Gov. Major appointed Rumsey

Rumsey was appointed Excise Comnisioner last March, and within two nths the Evangelical Alliance had drafted resolutions urging the Governor to remove him. When Vick's Vap-O-Rub was introduced here from the South last season these ladies found it filled the need exactly. Vap-O-Rub is a salve, which, exactly. Vap-O-Rub is a salve, which, when applied to the warmth of the body, is vaporized by the body heat. These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication through the air passages to the lungs, and, in addition, Vick's is absorbed through the skin, relieving the tightness and soreness. This two-fold action makes Vap-O-Rub useful for a wide variety of inflammations—from inflammations of the air pas of minimum and the air passages and lungs, such as head colds catarrh, asthmatic troubles, bronchitis and deep chest colds—down to inflammations of the skin and tis-

"We naval officers put against these theories the following: As soon as we are relieved of the necessity of having further regard for the United States we can conduct our naval war with the same ruthlessness as the British. This would enable us to declare all Great Britain and Ireland forthwith blockaded, notify all concerned that any and every ship, no matter of what flag, would, on entering the war zone, be destroyed without warning.

"This proposal conflicts with the provisons hitherto prevailing at sea, but as the British since the beginning of the war have not bothered themselves about any international law regulations we must arogate to ourselves the same right. The natural consequences would be that in the first few weeks hundreds of ships would be destroyed and result would be that no ship would again dare to run the great risk

Breach Would Be Perilous.

Special Cable to the Post-Disputch and the New York World. (Copyright, 1916, by Press Pub. Co.) LONDON, March 1.—The Frankfurter

Zeitung, copies of which have reached here, publishes an article based on "Conversation with a high naval officer.' discussing how the United States could be defeated by a submarine war. He is quoted as follows:

"There are two different views. One, supported by a majority of German statesmen, is that a complete breach between Germany and America would be very perilous, not on account of the military power of the United States, but for other reasons. The contrary view s suported by a majority of our naval officers, and is that the war could be brought to a victorious end much sooner on condition that every possible adantage were taken of a breach with

"The statesmen say that America

ould, in event of a breach, first confiscate our merchant ships, now lying in her harbors, of a value at least $250,000,000, whereby we should be robbed of the kernel of our mercantile marine, while Americans would automatically become possessed of a fine merchant flect in the early period following peace.

This would be disastrous, because

America would then be in position to surp Germany's former sea commerce

"Second, America could place a further $3,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 at the dis-

the United States.

"England would, therefore, actually be cut off from every source of sea sup-ply, and as it has been calculated that in times of peace her food supply is only enough to last three weeks, it may only enough to last three weeks, it may be assumed now that she would be starved out in perhaps two months. "To these views of the naval officers our statesmen reply that it would be dangerous to incite by any such means the universal indignation of neutrals. To this we say the indignation of neutrals, in a matter which concerns our existence, is to us an affair of just as complete indifference as at present to the British, who continuously are trampling all the rights of neutrals under foot. "If England then is left to the fate has planned for us, when she confronted by starvation she would be compelled to surrender unconditionally unless she wished to be starved out. With the fall of England, however, Russia and France also would auto-matically collapse, like the organs of a ody whose heart had been bored through.

"Then also America will remain isolated and must also accept any condi-tions we impose, because in the treatles with our European foes we can, among other things, also demand the handing over of all large battleships and submarines, whereby our fleet becomes seven times the strength of the American navy. Then America would simultaneously be compelled to surrender, and not only have to give up all in terned German liners, but also to pay all war expenditures of the Germanic Powers and their allies."

"As to points Nos. 2 and 3 which our statesmen make, we reply that a speedy ending of the war would not even give the Yankees time to supply money and munitions to Europe, especially as such deliveries presuppose the possibility of ships being able to enter our enemy's harbors. This our U-boat warfare

"Finally, as to the statesmen's fourth point, it may be assumed that Rumania and Greece would for reasons of 'safety first' wait to observe the further course of events and if a breach with America were to be followed at once by deeds and giving another period of grace like that which expired March 1, our success would, even in the case of Rumania and Greece, soon have the proper

Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beau tifully darkened, glossy and attrac-tive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appear ance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, tak-ing one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet cure, mitigation or prevention of dis-

The first pledge of this fund, $1000, was made yesterday by the Post-Dispatch when the club at its weekly luncheon Burbach, advertising manager of the stores everywhere sell it for fifty Monticello, Ill. surbach, advertising manager of the Advertising Club, made the announcement after telling of the wide advertis ng St. Louis would receive from entertaining the advertising men of the

M. P. Linn, president of the club, told the members that this was indeed an encouraging start for the fund. Five Other Bidders.

Brittain, as chairman of the Conven-ion Committee, told of having sent leters to several of the leading advertising clubs in the United States and of havng already received 10 or 12 responses avoring St. Louis for 1917. St. Louis, o get the convention, will have to win from Cleveland, Detroit, Buffalo, Cincinnati and New Orleans, all of which have decided to bid for it.

The decision will be made at Philadelphia when the 1916 convention meets there in June.

The convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World is the createst gathering of business men ever brought together, Brittain said today. He said 10,000 advertising men attended last year's convention in Chicago, and that many of these were accompanied by wives and families. The convention brings so many visitors for a stay of five days, he said, that only the largest cities can undertake to provide hotel accommodations and entertainment for them. He said he believed St. Louis would be able to surpass any other American city as host to the convention.

Entertainments Proposed.

If the convention should come here, Brittain said, the sessions would be held at the Washington University buildings, which have been offered free. No definite plans for entertainment have been decided upon, but it is proposed to have a parade similar to the Veiled Prophet's parade and to stage in Forest Park a roduction rivaling the Pageant and

Many members of the Associated Reillers of St. Louis have expressed themselves as being in favor of having the convention here, Brittain said. The motto of the convention is "Truth in Adertising," and wherever the convention is held the association attempts to have all the merchants display this motto by electric signs or in other original and leasing designs. Most every shaver puts something on his face after shaving but most such things are only makeshifts—what is needed is something that is not only cooling and soothing but healing and antiseptic besides. COURT GRANTS NEW TRIAL TO GAMBLER WADE OF ST. JOSEPH accurate in Discribing Tables of Chance in Place.

JEFFERSON CITY, March. 1.-In an opinion written by Judge Revelle the Supreme Court today reversed and renanded the conviction of Richard Wade, St. Joseph gambler, because the information filed by the State failed to escribe with sufficient accuracy the tables on which Wade was operating his games of chance.

The court holds that the evidence proved Wade was guilty of having vio-lated the anti-gambling laws but it is also held that the failure to describe the tables properly is sufficient cause or a new trial.

In describing the equipment of the place the information used this expreson: "A certain table and gambling deice commonly called "a craps table." Sambling experts who testified for the lefense said the tables used in Wade's lace were not what is commonly knows as "crap tables." Wale was convicted March 2, 1914, and ntenced to four years.

Missouri Sufferers Find Great Remedy

Thousands needlessly suffer from stomach aliments, handicapped in their work and pleasure. The stomach is the mainspring of life and the body cannot run without it.

You want to be well quick.

A great many people in Missouri and thousands all over the country have found the way to health by the use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. The first dose shows results. Here are the words of two Missourians:

MRS. J. B. TRULLINGER of Norborne, Mo., wrote: "Words cannot express my appreciation of your medicine. I have felt fine all summer and fall. Am gaining weight."

W. T. JENNINGS, cashier of Bank of Bois D'Arc, Mo., writes: "Please send four more bottles of the stomach remedy. Both my wife and use this medicine and think it truly wonderful." "If I had my will it would be advertised on every street corner. The man or woman that has rheumatism and fails to keep and use Sloan's Limited is like a drowning man refusing a rope."—A. J. PALESTINE, Tex., March 1.-Two things impress you, after training the Browns for two entire days of what promises to be an eventful campaign. First, they are, as Fielder Jones contends, the most impressive looking lot of men, athletically speaking, that ever have represented a St. Louis ball club. Secondly, they are in danger of being lassed as the best-dressed team in the major leagues.

Sartorially they are a scream. The soft-collar brigade is woefully in the minority, while there are enough collegemen on the club to make a front that no St. Louis team in recent years has been able to show.

George Sisier is the class of fashion: but you wouldn't single George out as the unusual member of the troupe. If they could only sing and dance as well as they dress, we could ship 'em right along to Lee Shubert for his next musical melange. nelange.

Jones Does Not Interfere.

The day's session yesterday was paricularly peppery, with never a restraining word from Fielder Jones. He didn't ing word from Fielder Jones. He didn't don his suit and had little to say, as he believes his men are too wise to overdo the thing at the start.

There will be only fungo work for another day or two, but if the schedule now mapped out is maintained, there will be a game Saturday afternoon between picked teams. Another is booked for next Tuesday, when the business houses will be shut down and royally welcome the players. Admission will be charged to both these exhibitions.

On Sunday the players will get what should prove a much needed rest. The baseball lid is securely nailed down here.

With the arrival yesterday of Dave Davenport, the squad is now at the 27 mark, with Clarence Walker, Armando Marsans, Bill McKechnie and Vin Campbell the only absentees.

Only Baseball Goes.

There are no frills to Jones' style He doesn't believe in of training. He doesn't believe in soccer football, hardball or medicine ball practice, and will tolerate nothing but straight baseball.

"We'll devote a let of time to bunting and teach the men how to start," he said today, "A good start, getting the jump in other words, is everything in baseball. Show me the player who is always looking for the jump on the other fellow and I'll show you a winning ball club. The finer points of baseball can be learned only in actual competition.

BOSTON, March 1 .- The Boston Amer ican League baseball club announced today that all American and National League clubs had waived claim to Forest Cady and Chester Thomas, catchers and Pitchers Collins and Joe Wood.

Wood enjoyed his best season in the major leagues in 1912, when he set a record for all the flingers to shoot at by winning 34 of his 39 starts. In his seven years as a member of the Red Sox he has pitched 170 games, an average of about 35 per year.

But recruits are being sought elsewhere, the larest acquisition of note being Pole Vaulter Floyd of the Missouri University, who recently broke theworld's record at Kansas City.

Within six menths the club ought to have teams in every athletic department able to hold their own in any company.

Does that look like they can't come back? It cost the Missouri A. C. $800,000 to return from Oblivion, but here it is today, boys-thanks to the hustlers who agve up their time gratic to ac-

If you want proof right here at home we cite the case of the Missouri thletic Association, which this day will officially "come back," after the harrowing experience of being wiped out by fire, with accompanying horrors of loss of life and injury to many member

The opening today of the M. A. A.'s doors marks a revival in sport from the depression which followed the with-drawal from activity of the biggest local athletic factor.

It has been said that the club would return more as a social than as an athletic organization. But this is NOT a fact. C HAMPION athletes in this city may be scarcer than oysters in a railroad station stew; but we cer-tainly can boast the title-holding recreation and athletics department of all the United States. For team efficiency Messrs. Abeken, Cunliff and Dwight Davis take the Spanish bun.

The statement can be readily verified by anyone who takes the trouble to note the pace this city is setting in municipal sports.

Everywhere cities have either copied the St. Louis system or are writing Director of Athletics Abeken about it.

The sports of the country will be very soon municipalised, judg-ing by the wildfire interest in this form of development that is sweeping over the country.

Thanks to Dwight Davis.

THE first steps in national organization of municipal athletics is being taken by Dwight Da-vis of this city, former Park Commissioner, and with Abeken, the orig-inator of the present city system of sports development.

Mr. Davis is now touring the East, scattering propaganda which will bear fruit in a meeting in St. Louis late in March of representatives of 30 large cities. The object of this meeting is organise a national association public park tennis bodies, with a m

It is only a step from organisation of city tennis associations to unio f municipal athletic associations is branches of sport.

When this big thing happens the U. S. can thank the big three hustlers of the Mound City, Abeken, Davis and Cunliff, for the achievement. They produced an original idea and alone, in the Declares Ships Which Strike Mines List So as to Make Lifeboats Useless.

LONDON, March 1.-That German narines have been sowing mines off Dover is the belief expressed by Ralph Foster of Kansas and other survivors of the Maloja disaster, including some of the officers of the ship. The fact that a number of disasters have occurred in the neighborhood of Dover the last two Sundays is considered in some quarters in London as positive evidence that Gernan submarines, knowing that a numer of boats clear for foreign ports Satrdays, have taken advantage of that fact to creep in as near to the coast as possible in the night and discharge cargoes of explosives.

In the opinion of Foster, lifeboats virtually are useless where vessels strike mines, as the ships almost invariably sink quickly, and because the crews are they always asked for insufficiently drilled for quick action and Father John's Medicine, the boats cannot be lowered when a insufficiently drilled for quick action and ship heels over on her side, as the Macine got its name and was loja did. Foster had a thrilling experilvertised.

Father John's Medicine and on upturned boats for an hour before he was rescued.

Has a Thrilling Experience. Has a Thrilling Experience.
"I was promenading the deck well forward about 10:20 o'clock Sunday morning," said Foster to the Associated Press representative, "when I heard a slight report. I thought it was a gun firing a blank shot until I saw debris falling. Even then the concussion had been so slight that I concluded an accident must have happened to some other ship near

'I rushed back immediately toward the stern of the Maloja, but before I had taken a dozen steps the ship began to list, and I started toward the lifeboat which had been alloted to my cabin. It was so full of people, most of them Lascars, that I saw it was likely to be swamped, so I went below for a life belt. I put on my overcoat and the life belt and also took my passport.

"By this time-hardly three minutes after the explosion—the passageways be-low were awash. I returned to the lifeboat and tried to help shove it clear. were standing by to lower the boat, but only a steward and myself were making any efforts to push it off from the sihp's side. We could not get the boat clear of the railing on account of the heavy list of the Maloja.

"Everybody then piled out of the lifeboat. Most of them slid dcross the deck and into the water on the other side. The deck was inclined to such a degree that we could not stand. I grabbed at an oar and slid down the deck into the water. The waves were so strong that I found I could not swim and was washed back against the side of the ship.

"Finally I managed to reach a cap-sized boat a few feet away and crawled on it. From there I could see in the water near me several bodies of persons who were bleeding from the head. One Lascar was being ground between a lifeboat and the ship's side. A big swell washed me off my insecure perch. knew what would happen to me if I remained on the side of the ship I was on, so I managed to get to the other side and clung to the ralling until only the davits were projecting out of the water. I then pushed away from the steamer and swam a few yards to a boat that had five or six Lascars in it When I looked around the last davits of the Maloja had disappeared.

We had no oars and the waves kept breaking over the boat. When it began to sink we swam to another capsized boat and clung there until a boat from a destroyer took us off.

"When we came alongside the destroyer I noticed that the swells seemed to us up and down for 12 feet. looked at the clock on board the destroyer and saw it was 11:30 o'clock. "The only terror or excitement shown aboard the Maloja while they were try-ing to lower the boats was on the part of the Lascars and some children who had become separated from their mothers. One child who was on deck near the point of the explosion was blown to pieces, an officer told me. "One thing which made an impression on my mind while I was clinging to a capsized boat was a 'Teddy bear' which was floating about. The cox-swain of the boat which picked us up rescued the toy, saying, 'I must have that for my kid.'

Foster said he was deeply impressed by the bravery of the women and the white crew of the Maloja, but not by crew of the Maloja, but not by her Lascar crew.

POLICE ARRESTING ALL AUTO DRIVERS

By 9 A. M. Partolman of Two Precincts Had Gathered in Fourteen Offenders.

Owners and drivers of all automobiles without 1916 license tags are being arrested by the police today.

By 11 o'clock the police of the New stead Avenue District had made 14 arrests. Two were physicians, who said their licenses had arrived this morning, and they were released. In the Laclede district there were seven ar rests, in the Page district six and in the Central dis 'ct four. Most of the perons arrested were chauffeurs.

The Police Department had published a warning, in the newspapers, that everybody driving a machine without the 1916 license would be arrested today, but the warning was ignored by many owners and chauffeurs.

Secretary of State Roach sent application blanks to every automobile owner Jan. 1 with a statement that the new li-cense must be taken out before Feb. 1. The department at Jefferson City has been busy during the last two months issuing licenses. The 1915 licenses exowners and drivers an additional month to take out the new licenses.

The numbers of the new license are white on a black background, and are readily distinguishable from the green license tags of 1915.

All the Edison Diamond Disc Phonographs and Records are here for your selection or entertainment, $80 to $450 Convenient Payments.

The photographs shown here, taken the morning after the explosion, give only a small idea of the damage done to the homes of this beautiful city. Where all had been peace and quietness, the house wreckers are now at work, completing the demolition of the many buildings made uninhabitable. There are a large number of Story & lark Pianos and Player-Pianos in Maplewood homes; three being in the immediate vicinity, within the radius of three hundred feet of the explosion. One, our style A Player in the home of W. C. Gordon, 2746 Limit Av., was not more than one hundred and fifty feet away. The instrument is shown in the front room and was in playing condition and had to be dug out of the debris so a photograph could be taken. The only damage done to this instrument was the

Our style 12 walnut piano, in the home of Mr. John Milby, 7222 Sarah Av., was thrown from one end of the room to the center and was covered with fallen plaster, lath and glass. The shock of the explosion threw the keyboard out of alignment. The regulation of the action and cleaning up and polishing of the case will put this instrument in first-class condition.

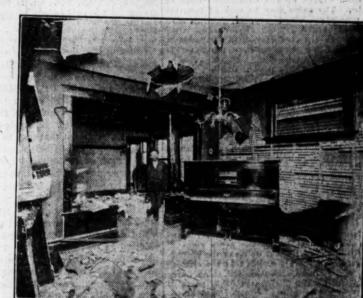

What has surprised every piano man who has examined these instruments, is the fact that the sounding boards are in perfect condition and the instruments in good tune. It is natural to expect that an explosion that would do the damage that was done to the homes in which these instruments were located, the tearing up of floors, blowing out of roofs and the wrecking of the whole building, would shatter the Pianos beyond all

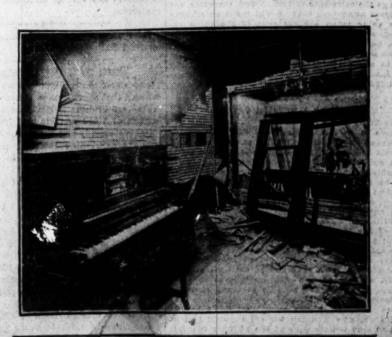

It is indeed evidence of the strongest kind, of the general excellence of the material and construction of the Story & Clark Pianos. This is but another instance to sustain our oft-repeated assertion, "Story & Clark Pianos and Player-Pianos are

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

VALUATION AND UNIFORMITY IN TAXES. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The Assessor of the city has publicly declared that he deems it his legal duty to assess all property, real and persona, at 100 cents on the dollar, that is 100 per cent, and that he is compelled by law to take this position, and has so instructed the Deputy assessors.

The statutes of the State will be searched in vain for any authority for this position. There s no mention of such a thing as an assessment of ual cash value." This is provided for in the Asessor's oath of office Section 11,344. The Assessor is also required, under Section 11,358, to assess shares of building and loan associations at "actual cash value" of each share; and, under ction 11,384, he is required to value and assess all the property on the assessment books according to its true value "in money" at the time of the assessment; and all other personal property should be valued at the "cash price of such prop-erty at the time and place of listing the same taxation."

We have, therefore, these two terms-"actua cash value" and "true value in money," which are obviously used as equivalent expressions; but rea estate has no "cash value" market, as it is not sold for each except at the courthouse door in ferced sales. The same may be said of tangible personal property. Where property has no cash market, it is absurd to say that "actual cash value" means, in the case of real estate, what it can be sold for "on time" when a purchaser is

It is for this reason that we have such a widely varying construction and application of these statutory terms in different parts of the State. a valuation at least double the assessed "cash value" of property in the State at large; and this because of the pressure for revenue on account of local needs.

At the next session of the legislature is law the should be passed regulating the handling and this great gathering, and its importance to St. Louis has an ordinance Louis as an advertisement is immense. It is one limiting the amount that may be stored and regulating the biggest tests ever put upon our hospitality

But not only is there no authority in the statute for this reported declaration of the Assessor, but on the other hand, the Constitution of the State, which is the supreme law to which the statute must conform, expressly provides that all taxa-tion must be uniform "upon the same class of ets within the territorial limits of the author-rying the tax." This means that the citizens Louis should be taxed on the same hasts and none other, as the citisens of other parts of the State for State purposes. Obviously, uniform tion as the same rate of tax. Young Men Would Not Consent.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch. There is so much being said now about pre-paredness and so much feeling against war and against killing off our young men; why don't you start something new by advocating through your valuable columns that only men over 45 years of age be allowed to go to war—volunteer—no vaical examination necessary-only able

THE COUNTY ROAD WORK.

The people of St. Louis County are awaiting the fulfillment of the pledge of the County Court to appoint an experienced, and competent road engineer and to take counsel of Government road experts in planning and constructing the permanent good roads provided for by the bond issue.

The work is so great and requires so much expert attention that capable and tried specialists are needed for its success. Without the best possible results the bond vote will retard rather than help the good road movement.

THE DAM BILL FILIBUSTER.

The water power monopolists unquestionably believed that absorption of interest in foreign concerns had brought a situation favorable to the assage of a bill to their own liking.

Unquestionably also they counted on diminished public sensitiveness resulting from a long but apparently unavoidable delay in fulfilling Democratic platform pledges.

But they had an unpleasant awakening when they tried to jam through the vicious Shields measure. Not even the newest U-boat crisis deterred Senators Cummins, Norris and Walsh from leading an uncompromising fight on the bill. Filibustering wall be resorted to if their powerful showing fails to influence sufficient votes.

The bill's violation of two basic conservation principles condemns it as utterly unworthy of Congress in the present state of instructed sentiment on the subject.

THE McKINLEY LINE RATE.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has suspended the McKinley line rate increase until June and has reopened the case for a complete hearing. It is evident that the commission ordered the increase of rate on incomplete information. News former management have an abundant supply of reports state that the commission was not aware excellent water, but remain unutilized. Water for the McKinley line franchise fixed the rate at 5 cents between St. Louis and Granite City as a condition of the line's obtaining the privilege of entering and building terminals in the city. The investigation of conditions, which is promised, may put a different face on the rate question. Without protest or representation from the city the commission heard only one side of the case.

The reported astonishment of the commission at the ignorance of the St. Louis municipal authorities and business organizations concerning the McKinley line's petition for an increase of rate is natural. The city ought to have been apprised of the effort to change the rate. It is not the first time that matters affecting St. Louis rates have been passed upon by the commission without the knowledge of the men charged with watching the city's interests. It would pay to have an agent to keep the city informed when questions affecting St. Louis go before the commission. It would not be a costly or laborious task.

WELCOMING HUNDREDS OF MAYORS.

St. Louis will have a chance this week to show what it can do in the welcoming line. Several hundred Mayors, more or less, will be our guests Friday and Saturday-the Mayors of every big city and town in the United States, beginning with New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, New Orleans and including liberal delegations of leading men from every section of the country. The Security League is as representative as a national party convention, perhaps more so, and its object is a broader one—national preparedness.

St. Louis considered itself fortunate in securing and our utmost efforts must be exerted to make the result a creditable one. Our visitors must be entertained in a more or less intimate and personal way, and the individuals appointed to the privilege must spare no pains towards the comfort and pleasure of their guests. The city should ship prevail during the meeting. It is a large order, but a big opportunity for St. Louis to make

HENRY JAMES.

To understand Henry James was the privilege of a few and the affectation of a few more. To the many his involved style and nearly elusive subtlety rendered him impossible. He might as well have written in an alien tongue to the English-speaking mass. To that much-maligned person, "the average reader," he was less intelligible than George Meredith. George Eliot's "Middlemarch" was a popular melodrama and a penny shocker compared to his icy refinement and glacier-like action. He was often lost in the tangle of his own attenuations, the mazes of his attempted meanings. To forthright intellect he often proved a joke. To those who could achieve his style and perceive his intention he afforded rare, fascinating mental exercise and a sort of dissipation, but he might as well have not written, for all the effect he left upon letters. His super-refinements were as evanescent as the traceries of frost upon the pane.

WHEAT IS DEPRESSED IN

Wheat futures opened steady in th ocal market today, owing to an ad vance of 1d in spot wheat in Liverpoo tain shipping outlook due to Germany's new submarine policy. many's new submarine policy. A late rally carried values well over yesterday's close, but the advance was lost. Final prices were a sharp fraction under yesterday's finish.

The Liverpool market review had a better tone. It said: "The wheat market was steadier today, influenced by American advices, but trading was dull, as expectations are for larger export clearances. Spot market was dull, Id higher, with cargo market steadier, Manitobas held 6d to 3d dearer; winters, 6d higher; Plates unchanged. Much attention is riven to American and Camadian receipts, and a belief in large reserves. Australia and Argentina continue to offer wheat freely. The corn market was weak, with the demand quiet and spots 1/2 to Id lower; parcels were 3d lower. Weather has been mild and consumption limited. It is believed that Argentine damage has been exaggerated. Plate holders are firm."

Corn futures were weak and over 1c lower. Liverpool cables were weak and 1/2,000 bu, gainst 631,000 bu last year. Shipments were 716,000 bu, gainst 72,000 bu. Oats futures were easier with corn. Coarse grains closed weak at irregular losses.

bu. The Price Current Grain Reporter says: "Private advices on farm reserves of wheat do not show as large a percentage as anticipated. A lot of wheat in the Central States is in bad condition, and there has been considerable feeding of wheat. The reserves are likely to be turned to feeding, on account of the shipments of soft corn liable to spoil with warm weather. When the grain merchants begin to pay attention of the shipments of soft corn liable to spoil with warm weather. When the grain merchants begin to pay attention to the impairment of the new crop, it will be a decided factor in price making, for the acreage in the country is so much below last year as to preclude any substantial surplus for European wants the next season."

Clement Curtis & Co. say: "Reports of our correspondents show considerable winter wheat killed in Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee. The recent Illinois State report is being reflected in the adjacent states. Texas has lost half of its acreage. Our Oklahoma reports agree with the state official condition of 73. Southern and Eastern Kansas show some damage, but firm.
